DROPPING THE CLASS

Once you have purchased your textbook and completed the week 1 quizzes, your enrollment will be confirmed in the class. Students who have not completed the Canvas week 1 assignments by the end of the first Sunday of the quarter (by 11PM), will be dropped from this course unless they have made alternate arrangements with the instructor. Students who do not complete the first midterm by the due date may be dropped unless they have made alternate arrangements with your instructor. Students will NOT be automatically dropped from this course. If you intend to drop the course, you must drop yourself.

CREDIT VERSUS NONCREDIT COURSE INFORMATION

You have enrolled in REST 351 which is a NON-CREDIT course. However, this Real Estate Practices course is offered both for credit (REST 51) and noncredit (REST 351). Passing either course can be used towards sitting the official DRE Salesperson license exam. Non-credit classes are tuition-free.

Students enrolled in REST 51 and REST 351 will be joined together into the same Canvas shell. REST 51 and REST 351 course assignments and instructions are identical.

Here are some quick facts about our Real Estate NON-CREDIT courses:

1. Noncredit courses cannot be used towards any De Anza Associate Degree or Certificates of Achievements.
2. Noncredit courses are not accepted for transfer credit at other institutions.
3. You will receive a “Pass/No Pass” grade not a letter grade on your official transcript.
4. REST 51 and REST 351 cannot both be taken the same quarter.

REQUIRED COURSE ORIENTATION VIDEO

The course orientation video can be viewed from within Canvas (<https://deanza.instructure.com>) on the first day of class. A high-speed Internet connection is needed to view this course orientation. If you are connecting from home, this means you will need cable modem, DSL connection or fiber connection.

HARDWARE REQUIREMENTS

A Windows PC or Mac is required to complete this course using a Chrome browser. Smart phones or tablets are not compatible with this course.

CANVAS INSTRUCTIONS

You will be using the Canvas web site to post questions on the discussion forum and complete your assignments. Please note that you will not be able to log into the Canvas course until the first day of instruction.

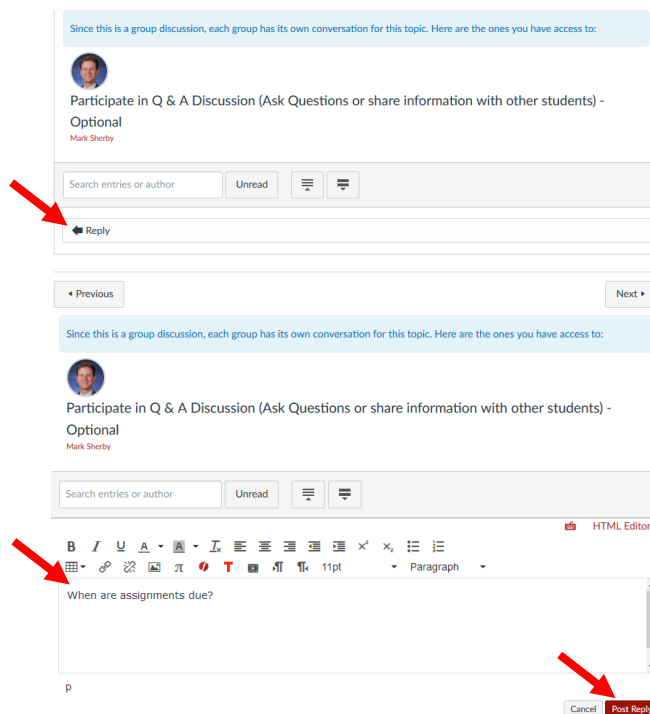

All assignments can be found in Canvas. Please complete the assignments in the order found in the Canvas weekly schedule.

Please do not turn off Canvas “Announcements”. Students who turn off Announcements are responsible for information they have missed.

To log on to Canvas go to <https://deanza.instructure.com> and then follow the instructions provided.

GROUP DISCUSSIONS

The “Q & A Discussions” in Canvas provides you a way to communicate with others in the class. Using this forum, you will be discussing homework assignments and may post questions that you have about our course. To participate in these discussions, you will first click on the weekly “Q & A Discussions” links in Canvas. You will read the discussion thread, and then click on the “Reply” area to type in your response (see below). When finished typing your response, you will click the “Post Reply” button (shown below) which will post your response to the other class members through email. This is a very simple tool that will allow us to communicate with each other during the quarter!

For emails sent directly to your instructor (sherbymark@deanza.edu), email responses will be returned within 48 hours (not including weekends). However, most emails are returned the same working day.

TESTING AND GRADING

Required Canvas Chapter Quizzes:

- You will NOT receive feedback on the quiz questions that you missed but you will know your score immediately and can retake the quizzes an unlimited number of times. If you score less than 70% on a quiz, review the chapter and retake the quiz as many times as needed to pass. Shoot for the highest quiz score possible.

Written Assignments:

- All assignments that require students to submit written information must have all directions steps completed; no partial credit is given for any written assignments.

SB 1495 COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

- You will complete an assignment on implicit bias, the impact of implicit bias, explicit bias, and systemic bias on consumers, the historical and social impacts of those biases, and actionable steps students can take to recognize and address their own implicit biases.
- You will complete assignment on federal and state fair housing laws as those laws apply to the practice of real estate. Assignment will include an interactive participatory component, during which the applicant shall roleplay as both a consumer and real estate professional. Students will pair off in groups of two to complete this interactive assignment, complete assignment, and reverse roles. Students will be provided feedback with best practices.

NOTE TO STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

If you have a disability-related need for reasonable academic accommodations or services in this course, provide your instructor with a Test Accommodation Verification Form (also known as a TAV form) from Disability Support Services (DSPS) or the Educational Diagnostic Center (EDC). Students are expected to give five-days notice of the need for accommodations. Students with disabilities can obtain a TAV form from their DSPS counselor (864-8753 DSPS main number) or EDC advisor (864-8839 EDC main number). DSPS page link <https://www.deanza.edu/dsps/>

DISRUPTIVE ONLINE BEHAVIOR

Disruptive online behavior may include (but is not limited to) the following: discussions that do when not relate to the discussion topic, posting inappropriate comments on discussion forum, monopolizing discussion time, refusing to participate in online activities, and engaging in any other activity not related to the classroom activity. Students who engage in disruptive behavior will be notified by the instructor. If the disruptive behavior continues, students may be asked to stop the disruptive behavior and/or eventually be dropped from the course.

Specific behavior standards for course can be found on the following page:
