- Mary from the Health Center announced to the senate that she would like to make the health office and the senate more connected. She also announced that on Thursday, November 15th, 2012 they will be holding an “American Smoke Out”. If you are a smoker, was a smoker or know someone who is and is trying to quit on this date they will be going to all the smoking spots located at De Anza College and be handing out freebies. They will get a ticket for a free cold turkey sandwich if they choose to stop smoking cold turkey. She would like to get the senate support on this if it is possible. She also encourages everyone to take a look at the health center’s website and get to know it very well and know the services that they have to offer to their many students. There will also be another event happening on Tuesday, November 20th, 2012 that will cover Sleep. If anyone is interested in going and to learn more about sleep please attend. It will start at 2:00pm and will be in Conference Room A and B.

It was to discuss that Movie Tickets are a really big hit at De Anza College and that they are selling so quickly Lisa Kirk feels that there may not be enough tickets to last for the next couple quarters. They talked about if they should decrease the number of tickets a student can get in one week or if they should buy more tickets for the office. They will talk about it more in their next meeting. They also talked about field trips to programs that the DASB Senate funds. They would like to visit a couple programs to make sure everything is running smoothly. Lastly they talked about budget and what dates they will be meeting. If anyone is interested in wanting to be part of the budget committee please contact Shahar Marom as soon as possible.

- Katherine Perng from Student Rights and Services reported that they met on Monday also and they talked mostly about Campus Cover and how they plan on getting that going once more. They also removed DASB Forums, as it wasn't really active and people were just posting random things in there. In their next meeting they will be talking about future projects and thing they wish to do for the coming quarters. They also will be passing a little sheet around and they would like everyone to put three concerns that they have so that way they can possibly work on getting it fixed.
- Tatyana Grinenko from the Marketing Committee reported that they met on Tuesday and they talked about making fryers for all the events that the committees are doing. They also made another facebook page and will be updating it on day by day bases. They are also working on the wall, every committee will have a spot on the wall and it will be color coded. It is up to the committee themselves to fix the wall to make it as they wish.
- Jessica Nguyen from the Diversity and Events Committee reported that they met on Monday. It was a very short meeting but they talked mostly on getting a banner for their committee. They hold all these events but they don't have a banner to put up so people can see who is holding it.
