PLANETBIDS Foothill-De Anza Community College District

College District recognizes that the traditional college bookstore business is in a transformational period, and it is the intent of the Colleges to be on the cutting-edge of campus retail services. Therefore, the District has initiated this Request for Proposal Process to seek an innovative and proactive partner that is on the cutting-edge of campus retail services to effectively serve De Anza College and Foothill College. The goal of the Colleges is to provide innovative, state-of-the-art Campus Stores that will result in the following:

- Improved affordability and access for De Anza and Foothill Students by continuing to reduce course materials costs, providing seamless financial aid transactions, and communicating effectively with Faculty and Students
- Efficient and effective transition to an innovative Virtual Course Materials Store
- Enhanced exposure of the College brands by increasing sales of De Anza and Foothill emblematic merchandise, both in-store and online
- Improved customer satisfaction through cutting-edge retail innovation and utilization of technology
- State-of-the-art destination/retail facilities and websites, through enhanced marketing and visual merchandising
- Competitive financial contribution to the Colleges, while achieving the qualitative and service goals of the RFP

REQUIREMENTS:

- 1) See attached related documents for details.

QUESTION SUBMISSION:

- 1) All line items must be priced (Please enter $0.00). This will allow for electronic notification of qualified contractors.
- 2) All questions must be submitted through Planet Bids
