Guided Pathways: Who We Are

Welcome to the Guided Pathways 23/24 Academic Year

Who are we?

◆ 350+ Employees (counseling, instructional, classified, administrative) from 120 areas, engaged in program development, working toward strengthening student success and college equity goals.

New Guided Pathways Team Members

Nina Van is focused on integrating student services into our Villages through direct recruitment and by building connections between Caring Campus and the larger Guided Pathways Program.

Fatemeh Yarahmadi is planning, organizing, and recruiting for the new Villages Program Planning project in order to enhance both student activities and opportunities.

Hyon Chu Yi-Baker is connecting student groups and clubs with Village Centers to stimulate community, support retention, and build success.

What We Are Doing

Beyond the State Directives

Campus Conferences

- The Partners In Learning Institute for 2022-2023, a series of workshops on strategies for providing responsive support to marginalized student populations, was a huge success!
- We are on track to begin the 2023-24 year with the same enthusiasm. Brian Malone will be stepping in for Sal Breiter while he is on PDL. For more information, please contact Brian Malone at malonebrian@fhda.edu

Just so you know!

You can hang out in your Village whenever you like during open hours (10:30am to 3pm, M-TH). Food is welcome, so feel free to have lunch alone or with your friends in a Village near you! You can also use Village spaces for both business and social events on Campus. Use the reservation form to secure your space!

You can make a room reservation using this link: <https://tinyurl.com/VCReservations>

If this is an after hours meeting or social event, we will get you card access to the room.
