Participation and Late Work Policy: Public speaking is an intensive skill building class for most students – a class that involves and evolves from our collective discussions and risk-taking. This means that it is in your best interest to actively participate in all activities and assignments on Canvas in a timely manner. The due dates posted on Canvas will keep you on track to finish all coursework and there are other incentives for being on time; however, it is OK to submit late work for partial credit. It is always better to submit something late, rather than not submitting it at all.

Classroom Protocol

Not only are you learning how to be a good speaker, but a good audience member as well. It is not easy to stand up in front of a group of your peers and present a speech. If you arrive late to class on a speech day, please wait outside until you hear applause before entering. Please also be aware of your non-verbal behavior on speech days. It can be difficult to present a speech when your audience members are distracted. Please be a good audience member and respectfully listen to speeches.

To help foster a productive learning environment, let's all work to do the following:

- interact respectfully with others
- embrace diverse perspectives and viewpoints

Interaction and communication with me are strongly encouraged. In addition to my specifically posted office hours, I am available by appointment. Text message is the preferred method of communication, second to face-to-face (in person or Zoom). Be aware that all communication is returned as soon as I'm "back at work" so it may not be immediate, but usually within a 24-hour period.

Assignments and Grading Policies

To receive full credit, all assignments should be typed, proofread, appropriately referenced, and turned in on the day they are due. In order to complete the three major speeches (demonstrative, informative and persuasive) and their self-evaluations on time, you are required to turn in an electronic copy to Canvas by 11:59 p.m. on the due date. Please, contact me well before the deadline if you have any questions about this process.

Assignments (Detailed information about each assignment will be available on the class website)

- Participation/Preparation. 70 points. You earn points based on your participation in class Canvas activities which may include: Personal Informative Survey, Syllabus Quiz, Discussion questions, Kahoots and reading quizzes.
- Exam: 200 points. There will be numerous reading assessment quizzes throughout the quarter. They are timed, open book, open notes and unlimited chances to take it. There will be a cumulative final exam which is timed, open book and open notes, but you can only take it once.
- Speech Performances: There are three major speech performances and five practice speeches which must be presented in class. You must submit a topic proposal, an outline and self-evaluation to receive credit for each speech.
 - Demonstrative Speech: 160 points. A 4-6 minute "how to" speech teaching the audience a skill that will improve their lives.
 - Informative Speech: 210 points. A 4-6 minute researched informative speech on a socially significant topic about which the audience does not already have a lot of knowledge.
 - Persuasive Speech: 250 points. A 5-7 minute persuasive speech designed to convince and motivate your audience to take some immediate action about a socially significant problem.
 - Practice Speeches: 50 points. These informal speeches will be used to practice speech structure and delivery in preparation for major speech assignments. The topics will vary. You will need to prepare, but there is no research component.

- o Outlines: You must submit a typed 500-1000 word (not including the bibliography) complete-sentence outline with an annotated bibliography for each major speaking assignment by the date and time noted on the class calendar. Submit your outline electronically to Canvas.
- Peer Evaluations. 60 points. You will evaluate peer speeches during the required speech performance meeting sessions.

Your final grade is based on the following percentage scale (out of 1000 points):

- 98% and above = A+ / Between 94% and 97.99% = A / Between 90% and 93.99% = A-
- 88% and above = B+ / Between 84% and 87.99% = B / Between 80% and 83.99% = B-
- 78% and above = C+ / Between 74% and 77.99% = C / Between 70% and 73.99% = C-
- 68% and above = D+ / Between 64% and 67.99% = D / Between 60% and 63.99% = D-
- Below 60% = F

College Policies

Academic Integrity: The college has an obligation to specify those standards of behavior essential to its educational mission and campus life. The following types of misconduct for which students are subject to disciplinary sanction apply at all times on campus as well as to any off-campus functions sponsored or supervised by the college: cheating, plagiarism or knowingly furnishing false information in the classroom or to a college officer.

For additional information, see the Student Handbook Academic Integrity Policy. You should, therefore, submit your own, original work for this course. I will uphold DeAnza College's policy on academic integrity. Consequently, an instance of academic misconduct (e.g., plagiarism, cheating, taking credit for others' work, submitting work for another course as work for this one, etc.) will likely result in a failing course grade.
